

Andy Smith Presents...

Peaky Blinders Race & Fun Casino Theme Nights

An evening in Birmingham at the Gee Gees and China Town Casino from only £1975. Nationwide

OW BIST GEWIN ! Fancy a bostin night out at the Gee Gees ? bit of gamblin ?

Peaky Blinders and 1920's theme night including a Night at The Gee Gees and illegal gambling...

Step back in time and through the secret door of the Garrison Tavern and into the murky underworld of the Peaky Blinders illegal gamblin den where you can have a flutter on the Gee Gees prior to the illegal gamblin tables opening with our new Peaky Blinders 1920's theme night.

We kick off the evening with a race night where you can place your bets at Thomas Shelby and Sons backstreet bookmakers. 4 races are presented on the big screen plus the auction race. The illegal race night lasts for about 1 hour. We can either raise funds for charity or meet some of the cost to create The Peaky Blinders race and casino theme night, quite legally ! We like to pay back all the Shillings taken to the lucky ticket holders after each race.

We then take a break for some fittle and enjoy traditional fish, chips n mushy pays or perhaps pie n mash is on the bar snack menu of The Garrison Tavern. NB. the menu for the evening is required.

Truly professional croupiers in costume open the casino tables for a duration of 2 hours. Blackjack and roulette, presented in Peaky Blinders imagery and we gamble the night away with your Shelby Shillings and winnings from the Gee Gee's. Ya need t keep ya wits about ya and dunna get too kailiyad if you wanna win the prize for the best gambler, although bribes ! may be accepted !!

How does it work?

On the day of your special event we will arrive 4-5hours prior to guests arriving in order to totally transform your chosen venue into the murky world of the Peaky Blinders.

We commence the evening with 4 horse races which will take around about 1 hour to complete.

Food or dinner can then be served. Please provide.

The gambling tables then open for a couple of hours

The clear-up then begins. (We will require up to 3 hours for this.)

How do I confirm my booking?

Simply contact me and with a couple of clicks I will convert your enquiry into a confirmed booking. I will then raise an invoice to be paid by company credit card or bank transfer prior to the date of the event.

I look forward to entertaining your colleagues and invited guests on this special occasion.
